The Lords My Shepherd by Stuart Townsend

The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me lie in pastures green.
He leads me by the still, still waters
His goodness restores my soul.

*And I will trust in You alone,
And I will trust in You alone,
For your endless mercy follows me
Your goodness will lead me home.*

He guides my ways in righteousness
And He anoints my head with oil,
And my cup, it overflows with joy,
I feast on His pure delights.

And I will trust in You alone, ...

And though I walk the darkest path,
I will not fear the evil one,
For You are with me, and Your rod and staff
Are the comfort I need to know.

And I will trust in You alone,...

*Ecc 12:7 Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was:
and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it*

Reflection

POEM

Remember me as I used to be, not as you saw me last
Recall the days of happy times, spent with me in the past
Instead of tears for what might have been, smile for all we shared
A life of happiness, made so because you cared
And next time you see a rose bloom or hear a robins song
Remember me as I used to be, in days when I was strong
I would not wish for you to grieve, for the person I had become Instead, relive those memories of days when I was young
So remember me as I used to be, not as you saw me last
And keep me close in your memory, in your present and in your past
